RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this sity, under the usages and regulations heretofere prevaling are called upon to perform more infor without remuneration, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of classity and religious advertisement, and communications, tributes of respect, oblivaries, &c., &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, im-poses upon them a burden so onerous, that they feel called upon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, ity making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the par-ties more muscliately interested. In this they are but folstess more namediately interested. In this they are but including the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propricty, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united together in a mutual agreement, upon he is lowing specified terms or the publication of these as well as every sort of regular and inches of 6, 6%, 6%, and 7 octaves, manbusiness advertising.
